

2014年度 永江杯

Nagae Taikai 2014

12th July 2014, Kenshikan Melbourne

* 3rd Place Match

		(3 rd Place)
--	--	-------------------------	--	--

Regulations (as per AKR rules)

- The duration of all matches is 5 minutes.
- Preliminary rounds will be conducted using a pool system with 3 point matches.
- In pools of 3 the order of matches is as follows: A><B, A><C, B><C.
- In pools of 4 the order of matches is as follows: A><B, A><C, D><C, D><B.
- There will be no extension (encho) in pool matches.
- The winner of a pool will be determined by number of wins (draws are not counted).
- If two or more competitors have the same number of wins, then the winner will be the one will the greater number of points scored (points conceded are not counted).
- A draw will be considered superior to a defeat.
- If two competitors are still equal, an ippon shobu (one-point) shiai without a time limit will be played to determine the winner.
- If all three competitors are equal on wins and points scored, the pool will be played again in full (sanbon shobu).
- Progression in the competition after the pools will be by knock-out.
- There will be encho in knock-out rounds and finals will have no time limit.
- There is a 3rd Place Match between those who have lost in Semi-Finals